28.
M: Welcome to our classroom. It's nice to meet you.
G: It's nice to meet you, too. I'm excited to start a new class.
M: That's great. Will you find somewhere to sit?
G: Ok. I will do that right now.
29.
G: Do you know what we will do next?
B: In 5 minutes, we will all walk to music class together.
G: I like to sing, but I also really like to run. When is gym class?
B: We don't have gym class until tomorrow.
30.
W: What are you building with your blocks?
G: I don't know. What should I build?
W: Why don't you build a rocket ship or a castle?
G: A rocket ship would be fun because it could fly into space! And a castle would be so magical.
W: If you built a castle, you could play with your princess dolls in it.
G: The castle idea sounds good to me, mom.
31.
M: Thomas, could you help Emma today at lunchtime?
B: Sure. What should I help her with?
M: I just need you to help Emma with her science homework. She's been sick and has not been here at school recently.
B: That won't be a problem. Can I finish my math homework first? It should take me only 10 minutes.
M: Sounds good, Thomas. Thank you.
32.
W: Hi, Ken. What are you selling on this hot day?
B: Hi, Mrs. Miller. I am selling lemonade. Are you thirsty?
W: Actually, I am! I will take two glasses.
B: That will be one dollar, please. Would you also like a snack for one dollar, too?
W: No, thank you. I'm not very hungry, just thirsty from this hot sun.
B: Here you go. Enjoy the rest of your day!
33.
G: Mrs. Anderson, I can't find my book! The classroom is so messy.
W: That's because there are so many books all over the floor. Will you help pick them up, please?
G: Yes, I will. There are also pencils everywhere. Do you want me to pick them up, too?
W: Don't worry about those. I will have Logan help with them.
G: Sounds good, Mrs. Anderson.
34.
M: Hello. How can I help you?
B: Hello. We are here to buy shoes. I want new basketball shoes and my little sister would like soccer shoes.
M: It seems you two are very active children.
B: Yes, we play different sports but we practice running together every day.
M: Wow, that's cool. Why do you run every day?
B: I'm on the basketball team and she is on the soccer team at school. We just try our best to be good team players.
35. Hi, Steve. It's Tyler. I think I left my sweater at your house. Can you please keep it there for me? My dad will come by your house to pick it up before dinner. Thanks.

36. Hi, Ella. It's mom. Are you having fun at the theater with your friends? I hope you ate your favorite kind of popcorn there. I'd like to know what time the movie ends. You already told me which theater you are at. Please call me back.

37. Hello, Billy. It's Mrs. Wilson, your homeroom teacher. I'm calling to remind you to bring pictures from your trip to the ocean. We're going to study sea animals tomorrow. Sarah is bringing seashells to show the class, and Ben is bringing a star fish.

38. Hello, Brianna. It's William. Are you free after school tomorrow? Could you help me wash my bicycle? I was riding it yesterday when it started raining, and the wet mud made it all dirty. Cleaning the bike with a friend would be faster than doing it by myself. Let me know if you can.

39. Hello, Michelle. This is your gym teacher calling. The principal just asked me if the gym could be used for the basketball tournament tomorrow. I told him that would be alright. So, we'll need to move class outside. Please bring your outdoor running shoes so that we can run around the track. See you tomorrow.

40. Hi, Marcus. I'm Megan from The River Bookstore. I'm calling with good news. You entered into a contest that was at our bookstore last week. This year's contest was "Which Book was Written by Which Author?" Well, you chose the correct answer and won! Please come by and pick up your prize sometime this week. Congratulations, and we'll see you soon.

41. Hi, Dad. It's Jayden. I'm sorry. I missed the bus, so I didn't go home after school. So, I stayed late to get some help with my math homework. My friend Charlie also stayed after school to practice his violin, and he gave me a ride to his house. So I'm here at his house now. Could you pick me up on your way home?

Dictation 4

Actual Test 2 Listening Part 4, 5

28.
G: Mom, can I go to my friend Mindy's birthday party this weekend?
W: Only if you've finished your homework.
G: I finished it last night.
W: Then yes. You can go.
29.
M: Why are you not finished with your math homework?
B: I'm really good at science, but math is hard for me.
M: You finished your science homework, so let me help you with your math homework.
B: That's great! Thank you, Mr. Wilson.
30.
W: Good news! Your puppy is not hurt. He is just sick.
B: Oh, thank you. I was scared that he broke his leg at the park.
W: His leg is fine. You just need to let the puppy rest and give him lots of water to drink.
B: That sounds good. I will listen to your advice.
W: I hope he feels better soon!
31.
G: What is our homework for tomorrow?
M: You must read Chapter 4 and write notes about the characters.
G: Is it OK if I write notes about the places they travel to? Like the river?
M: No, you should take notes about the characters because that's what your test will be on.
G: When is our test?
M: Not until next week.
32.
B: I'm sad it's snowing outside today. I really wanted to ride my bicycle.
G: I understand. But there are lots of things we can do inside. Like draw, or read a book, or build a house out of blocks.
B: All of those things seem boring to me.
G: How about watching your favorite movie? That will cheer you up.
B: Good idea. Will you make some popcorn, too?
G: Of course.
33.
M: Welcome to the zoo. Would you like to feed the giraffes?
G: I'd love to, but I'm afraid they will bite my hand!
M: Oh, no. They will not do that. They just lick the food right off your hand. See, watch this.
G: That was so cute. They're just hungry. They won't hurt me.
M: Exactly.
G: I think I can try it now.
M: Great! Let me help you.
34.
G: Mr. Louis, when is our next practice to run around the track?
M: It's this Friday. Why do you ask?
G: I think I need new shoes for that. The ones I'm wearing now are old and they are not for running.
M: Do they hurt your feet?
G: Not much, but yes. That slowed me down in the last practice.
M: That's bad. Why don't you ask your mom to buy new ones that are better to run in?
G: I'll do that.
35. Hi, Charlie. It's mom. Please feed the dog before you go outside to play with your friends. Remember to give him only one cup of dog food. The vet said he should not gain more weight. Thanks.

36. Hi, Liam! It's Bella. Do you know what time our music practice is tomorrow? I need to know because it's also my uncle's birthday and we are going to celebrate with him. My dad needs to make a reservation at the restaurant by tonight. Call me back when you can.

37. Hi, Chloe. This is your gym teacher calling to let you know that our school field will be closed this week. Our game on Wednesday will still start at 2 p.m. but we will be playing on the new soccer field in the city park. Please let your parents know about this.

38. Hi, Jim. It's your baseball coach calling. Since you are the leader of the team, I need you to help me with the beginning of practice tomorrow. Please have everyone pick up all the baseballs from the field. Then take out all the gloves from the gym and bring them outside. After that, start playing catch with a partner.

39. Hi, mom. It's Oliver. My friend and I rode our bikes to the pool and I accidentally forgot my towel. Could you please bring one to me? There are a lot of kids here, so it might be hard to find me. Will you meet me at the tree outside of the pool area when you get here? If you come inside, you will have to pay money.

40. Hi, Lydia. It's Rita. I just finished a book about dinosaurs. I was thinking you would like it. It tells the many different stories about why they all disappeared from the earth. I'm sure you'd be interested in reading it since you're curious about how all the dinosaurs became extinct. I'll bring it to school with me tomorrow and give it to you at lunchtime.

41. Hi, Larry. This is Matt calling from the bicycle repair shop. I took a look at your bike and it seems to me that the brakes are old and need to be replaced. No wonder you were having a hard time stopping on the bike. Your options are to buy used brake parts or brand-new ones. The new ones are much more expensive though. Let me know what you would like to do.

10. Mom, I finished my breakfast. Can I have a cookie now because I ate all of my breakfast food?
11. The air is so dry in this room. Please water the flowers so they don't die. We need more sunlight in here, too. I'll open the windows.
12. You just finished the art project: finger painting. What a fun but messy class! I'm glad you all enjoyed this project. It's time to clean up. Please wash your hands in the sink.
13. Ouch! A bee stung me while I was swinging. Maggie, will you please run to the house and tell mom what happened? I will wait here by the tree.
14. Attention, team. Today we have a game. I want you to change out of your yellow practice shirts and wear your blue game shirts. Also, don't forget to put on your black shorts.
15. Yuna, we are going to have soup for dinner today. Will you please help me make it? These carrots need to be peeled. Please wash them in the sink before they are peeled. Meanwhile, I will cut an onion into small pieces.
16. Dad, this is my favorite movie! But I can't hear what the people are saying. Will you please give me the remote from the table? I will turn up the volume. I promise I will not ask you for the remote again.
17. Martin, you counted to one hundred out loud without mistakes. Good job! This time you're going to practice by writing the numbers down. Here we have a number chart. You need to fill in the missing numbers in the chart.
18. Will you go to see a movie with me tonight?
(A) It's not a good movie.
(B) Yes, I like to go shopping.
(C) Not tonight. I have to study for a test tomorrow.
19. Have you seen Jake?
(A) Yes, I'm hungry.
(B) I like to play with Jake.
(C) Yes, he's over there reading.
20. Will you read out loud?
(A) Yes, I will.
(B) I think I'm sick.

(C) Sorry, I'll be quiet.

21. Now it's time to take a test. Are you ready?

(A) Yes, you can.

(B) Yes, I think I am.

(C) No, I can't see you.

22. Would you like to try the shoes on?

(A) Yes, I would like to buy these.

(B) Yes. After I choose a different color.

(C) I don't know how much it costs.

23. What size shoe do you wear?

(A) I like to wear tennis shoes.

(B) I wear a size seven.

(C) I can't remember which color.

24. Will you buy these shoes?

(A) Yes, please. They are very comfortable.

(B) No, my brother wears big size shoes.

(C) I think tennis shoes are uncomfortable.

25. Did you water the flowers outside?

(A) There was lots of water in the sink.

(B) Yes, I did. They were looking very dry.

(C) Yes, the plants in the kitchen look green today.

26. Which is your favorite flower?

(A) I am taller than my brother.

(B) I climbed the tall tree today.

(C) They are almost as tall as me!

Dictation 6

Actual Test 3 Listening Part 4, 5

28.

G: Dad, have you seen my glasses?

M: They are on the table by the TV. I think you left them there after watching a movie last night.

G: Great. Thanks, Dad.

M: Please hurry. You shouldn't miss the school bus.

29.

M: Did you finish your art project, Billy?

B: Not yet, Mr. Larson. Last night I had a piano lesson after school and then I did not feel well.

M: But you've had all week to work on it. Please finish it soon.

B: Sorry, Mr. Larson. I will.

30.

B1: Do you have an extra T-shirt I could wear?

B2: Why do you need a T-shirt?

B1: I was playing outside and my clothes got all dirty.

B2: Sure. You can have this. Do you want some clean shorts, too? I have a size small.

B1: I wear a size medium. I don't think they'll fit me, but thank you.

B2: Alright, here you go.

31.

W: Ricky, I'm surprised to see you in my office. Please tell me what happened in class today.

B: I was tying my shoelaces and another boy tripped over my foot and fell.

W: So, it was an accident?

B: Yes, I really didn't mean to hurt anyone.

W: I think an apology is still needed.

B: I think so, too. I will say sorry to him when I return to class.

32.

M: Susie, I haven't seen you ride the bus lately. Where have you been?

G: I have been on a vacation in Hawaii with my family.

M: That sounds nice. Hawaii has many volcanos. Did you climb one of them?

G: No, I was scared. Instead, I did some snorkeling and sandcastle building on the beach.

M: Wow, I guess you had a lot of fun!

G: Yes, I hope to return again next year.

33.

W: Hi, Carson. What would you like for your birthday present?

B: Hmm, I like to color and play videos games.

W: I know you also like to play soccer and go swimming.

B: Yes, but I already have a soccer ball and a swimsuit for swimming.

W: Then how about more coloring books and a new video game?

B: Yes, that sounds wonderful to me. Thanks, Grandma.

34.

G: Hello. I'd like to buy some chocolate chip cookies.

W: Oh, is chocolate chip your favorite?

G: No, my mom loves it. I'll get one box for her birthday present.

W: Great. We have peanut butter cookies and vanilla cookies. Would you like to try some?

G: Peanut butter is my favorite! I will definitely try some.

W: If you buy two boxes of any kind now, you will get a box of vanilla cookies for free!

G: Awesome. I'll buy chocolate chip and peanut butter.

35. Hello, Stacey. It's your grandfather. You left your science project here at my house. Don't you need it today for the science fair? I know you worked so hard on it. Do you want me to bring it to your classroom? Call me back please.

36. Hello, Mr. Stevenson. This is Principal Rogers calling from your son's school. As you know, next Friday is Halloween. To celebrate Halloween, we are having a party. I'm calling to ask if you'd like to volunteer. The kids are going to wear costumes and so should you!

37. Hi, Courtney. This is Sam. I know we were going to go to the park today, but it's raining outside. I'm watching the weather on the news now, and they said a storm is coming this afternoon. Why don't you come over to my house and play games instead? I have a new puzzle, and you would really like it.

38. Hello. This is Kevin's teacher, Ms. Grace. I'm calling to let you know that Kevin won the school spelling bee. There were only him and one other boy left at the end of the contest. But Kevin spelled the final difficult word correctly, and he won! Kevin did a great job even though he said he was nervous. We are very proud of him and all his hard work.

39. Hey, Molly. It's Jessica. Would you want to go to the amusement park with me this weekend? I am scared to go on the fast rides alone. My brother hates rollercoasters and will go with me only on the slow rides. If I had you as my partner to go on rides with, I would feel much better and less nervous. Can't wait to hear from you.

40. Hi, George. This is your father. I know you have trumpet practice after school. But will you come home right away when school is over? Your aunt flew into town on an airplane and she asked to see you. She wanted to surprise you and spend some time with you, but she can't stay very long. She even brought you a gift. You'll love it.

41. Hi, Carl. It's Nikki. I went over to your house today to see if you were home. I wanted to talk to you about the school play. I'm really sorry you didn't get the part in the play that you hoped for. Don't give up, Carl. I heard there is another chance to join the play. For me, it took a lot of practice to get the singing part I wanted. I'm here to help you if you need someone to practice with.
